Subject Line: Notice of Withdrawal from TSA Precheck Program

Body:

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is _____. My Known Traveler (Clear or Global Precheck) Number is _____. I am writing to withdraw my participation in this program. I no longer wish to have TSA Precheck access.

Because I am withdrawing my participation in this program, I am also withdrawing my consent for the TSA, Department of Homeland Security, and any other federal agency or agent to engage in the search, seizure, or collection of my private personal information, from this day forward, to include but not be limited to:

I am withdrawing my consent for government access to my personal information, data, internet activity, social media, financial, medical, psychological, any and all digital communications; to include but not be limited to cell phone transmissions of any kind, text message, emails, video messaging, internet activity, etc...

Finally, I am removing my consent for the TSA, Department of Homeland Security, and any other federal agency or agent to retain any of my personal information and/or property. Please immediately and securely destroy any and all of my personal data and/or property that may currently be in the possession of the TSA, Department of Homeland Security, and any other federal agency or agent.

Because I am withdrawing consent to any search and/or seizure of my personal information and/or property, please be on notice that any search and/or seizure of my personal information/and or property will be invalid, unconstitutional, and unlawful without a proper warrant that complies with the terms and conditions of the 4th Amendment of the US Bill of Rights and the Supreme Court of the United States in Torres v. Madrid (2021), Caniglia v. Strom (2021), Carpenter v. United States (2018).

If you have any questions or need any additional information to complete my withdrawal from this program, please contact me immediately. If I receive no further contact from you, I will hold to the conclusion that my participation and consent have been successfully and completely withdrawn.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
